REC'D.

And today we had another very heavy rain and things look lovely the trees are out in full leaf. I suppose things are ahead of us when you are. wish I could see my big sister. I am writing this on water and it is now one o'clock a.m. so I must close and go to bed again Edith I don't think Sadie and I will get to Pittsburgh this summer on my vacation as she expects to be sick about the time I will get my vacation some where about the last of July so don't look for us this year.
Well I must close. Now write soon

Cleveland, O. May 1st / 1896

Dear Sister Edith

I hope you will not feel offended at us for writing at so late a date for we are truly ashamed of ourselves for not answering your kind letter earlier for letting you know how we liked the beautiful dishes you sent us.

Well Edith the reason we haven't written sooner is this Sadie has been busy cleaning house and doing her sewing. so she has been waiting for me to write and I have been waiting for her.
Besides Father Lawrence was very sick in this time and Sadie and I both spent all the time we could with Father. But he died on the 18th of March and the following Saturday was the funeral and he was put in the vault and last Sunday was taken out and buried in a nice family lot which Mother bought.

it was just like another funeral when he was buried I couldn't go but Sadie was there and just a few of the friends. So Edith I know you won't feel hard at us for not writing sooner. will you?
Edith Sadie thinks the dishes just lovely and appreciates every thing you have sent her and now she is almost through house cleaning and was wishing today that you could see the house while every thing is nice and clean.
I tell you what she has got things fixed nice and we have got a nice little home and happy and many times obliged for the dishes.

Jennie is at our house now came out yesterday on my day off and is going home tomorrow she said Ma is well as usual she said I suppose you know that they had a fire over there but it didn't amount to very much I guess.

Louise came out this evening to see how we are as they haven't seen us for sometime she was saying they were down to the cemetery today to see Father's grave and put some flowers on it they visit him often Edith I tell you there is a family to see how a father is missed it seems as though they can't get over it. But it is the ^{same} end that we all have got to come to - - Edith we had an awful rain here yesterday down town the streets were filled with water and hail so that the sewers wouldn't carry it away fast enough and it backed up over the sidewalks and flooded the basements of the stores and buildings so the loss will no doubt be great.

Also some nice Wild Duck and Snipe of this spring's shooting.

Live Lobsters Daily.

Every kind of Fresh and Salt and Smoked Meats.

Spring Lamb a specialty just at present.

Funeral of Jonathan Lowery.

The funeral of Jonathan Lowery, who died last Wednesday noon, was held Saturday afternoon, from the family home, No. 146 Beman street. Besides the immediate relatives many friends of the family were present. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Craft, of Grace Episcopal Church, who delivered a touching eulogy. Among the beautiful floral offerings was a large pillow of lilies, roses, and hyacinths. It bore a simple inscription, "Father," and was presented by the children. The pall-bearers were: Mr. W. Trythall, Mr. C. Trythall, Mr. W. Snell, Mr. B. Seymour, Mr. G. Pollman, Mr. T. Martin. The remains were placed in the vault at Haryard Grove Cemetery.

FOR A HOME.

Kirkbride Given a Verdict by a Jury.

Salem, O., April 11.—In the case of Kirkbride against Doult, for alienating the affections of Kirkbride's wife, the jury, after being out eight hours, brought in a verdict against O. U. Doult for $2000. The sympathy of the people is with Kirkbride, and the money consideration is considered inadequate for the happy home which was broken up. The suit for divorce brought by Kirkbride against his wife, and her petition for alimony, were submitted to the court on the same evidence produced in the damage suit.

Flower Distribution.

Central Friendly inn will be made a distributing place for flowers during the coming summer. Mme. Brema and Plunket Green will conduct a series of services at the inn after May 7.
